Old Business:

Green Apple Bike Roundup – November 4th

- Thank you Jon for being the MAARS coordinator for this event and for your informative after action review.
- Assisted the Greeks in the National Day of Service.
- 34 bikes were found, out of approximately 300. 32 were retrieved and 2 were in use.
- Used a Service and Rescue mobile App for the first time. It incorporated many volunteers without radio experience and accurately rapidly mapped the areas searched.
- Resulted in minimum radio use.
- Event was great for getting publicity for the club.
- Repeater was used this time but crank up tower could be used next time
- Thanks to the following HAMS for participating
 - Jon – KE0LHK
 - Craig – KB8KGA
 - Dave – KD0AZG
 - Jason – KB0EOD
 - Jeff – KD4ET
 - Rock – KG5WRS
 - Rick Vice

Christmas Party

- Pizza Ranch is booked on Dec 14th
- Hy Vee is available – Market Place Grill Express has menu to order from, and food is available including food within the store.
- After briefing by Jason, motion was made and carried by majority to meet at Hy Vee on Dec 14th at 6:30 p.m.
- Ashley will send out an email requested RSVP on number of people planning to attend to provide to the manager of the Market Place Grill Express to ensure adequate staff is on duty.

KSU Club Event Collegiate Round Up, October 15-19th

- James reported KSU took third in the nation for colleges – Great job W0QQQ!

New Business:

Officer Elections:

- President, Ryan (AD0TZ) self-nominated
- Vice President, Mike (W9MPA) self-nominated
- Treasurer, Suzanne (W0MMA) agrees to remain
- Secretary, Ashley (KE0IQV) agreed to continue, after no one volunteered for the position
- Slate above elected en masse

Winter Months

- Jason, KB0EOD, has graciously offered his house as a place to stay for anyone in need these winter months.

Visitors:

- Chris McCush, KD0VEQ, for visiting for the first time
- Jeff Sheldon, KC5QBT, rejoined MAARS – welcome back!
- Thank you both for joining us.
